WITH A COMPLETE CONSULTING INDEX.

By JOHN BARTHOLOMEW, F.R.G.S.

Crown folio, half-bound morocco, gilt edges, price £1, 11s. 6d.

SELECTIONS FROM OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We can heartily recommend the 'Handy General Atlas' which Messrs Philip & Son have published. The maps, which have been engraved by Mr Bartholomew, are clear and easy of reference; while we have found by constant use that the selections of names is most judicious. The volume will prove useful to all readers of newspapers, and popular books of travel."—Athenæum.

"We would especially desire to notice 'Philip's Handy General Atlas,' illustrating Modern, Historical, and Physical Geography. It is really a most valuable work, and contains much matter which has not been set out in the same form; for the geography of the English Colonies is especially attended to, and the changes effected in the map of Europe by the wars of Napoleon illustrated by successive maps."—Westminster Review.

"We have been at some pains to examine the maps and test the accuracy of the Index, and we must pronounce the work in every respect excellent."—Liverpool Albion.

"The 'Handy General Atlas' is a very excellent work for the use of students, and generally for purposes of reference in connection with geography. The maps are clearly printed, carefully coloured, and they appear, so far as we have been able to examine them, to be accurate in all respects. There is an admirable Index to the Atlas, and altogether the work is one which should have great popularity in the country."—Scotsman.

"The Maps are remarkable for the clearness and accuracy of their execution, and embody the latest territorial changes, and the results of the most recent discoveries."—Courant.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The maps reduced from the Ordnance Survey Sheets of Scotland, which are being published by Messrs A. & C. Black, Edinburgh, are deserving of a special word of praise, both on account of the care and skill with which they are delineated, and for the handy, portable shape in which they are issued. The scale—half-an-inch to the mile—is sufficiently large to allow of every farm, patch of wood, streamlet, or eminence likely to attract the notice of the tourist being plainly denoted, and Mr John Bartholomew has shown excellent judgment, as well as bestowed great pains in selecting the materials for the maps from the larger sheets. The heights of all the noteworthy eminences are given, but the roads and byeways of the country are indicated with special care. The result is a map at once clear, full, and accurate, and having the additional recommendations of being well mounted, tastefully tinted, and of convenient size."—Scotsman, 26th May 1875.

"We speak advisedly when we say that these maps are the only existing tourist's maps that can be depended upon for the exact distance from place to place marked on them. Not one of the hundreds of cheap maps even pretend to accuracy in this respect. . . . We have no doubt whatever that they will at once supersede all existing maps, not only for the purposes of the tourist, but for all general purposes."—Courant.

"After a most careful scrutiny of the many points and places of interest on the West Coast, we can testify to the skill and accuracy of Mr Bartholomew; while it is an additional recommendation that the delicacy and clearness of the engraving render the maps pleasant to the eye."—North British Daily Mail.

of its dealings with them. Being a Mutual Society, all arrangements for the conduct of its business are made with a view to the convenience and benefit of its own Members, who alone participate in the advantages arising from its successful progress. P R E F A C E.

THE present issue of the GLASGOW POST-OFFICE DIRECTORY has been prepared with great care, and a number of changes introduced, which the Publishers hope will be satisfactory.

The following places have been incorporated in the General, Street, and Trades :— Govanhill, Crosshill, Strathbungo, Crossmyloof, Pollokshields, Partick, Whiteinch, Kelvinside, Hillhead, Possilpark, and Springburn; and the list of streets at pages 53 to 74, has been prepared with italic letters at the beginning of each line, as an index to the streets, &c., on the Map, which has been traced in half-mile squares, with similar letters on the margin at each side. Thus: Blythwood square is marked E d; and to find this on the Map, take the line E from top or bottom, and the line d from the sides, and trace till it meet, and within that square the place wanted will be found. To find Park Circus, marked D c, trace in a similar way, and the place will be found on the Map within the half-mile space. The Map this year has been placed at the end of the Directory, instead of the beginning, which will be found more convenient as it can be kept open while the Directory is being examined.

In the Street Directory, the names of the intersecting streets are again given in ordinary type; and a line or small dash indicates the position where each street intersects.

The boundaries of the sixteen wards of the city for municipal and parliamentary purposes are again given at pages 48 to 52.

In the Appendix will be found Tables with despatches and arrivals of mails, Pillar and Wall Letter-boxes, Lists of Post Towns, Post-Office Regulations, Telegraph Information, &c., Banking Houses and Branches in Scotland, Local Institutions, Associations, &c.

The publishers return thanks to the gentlemen connected with the various local institutions for their kindness in supplying much useful information. Also they beg to thank their numerous subscribers for the patronage bestowed on the work for the long period of fifty-two years.

The printing has been done, as formerly, by Mr. Mackenzie, Howard Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ann Street.

Its object is the enlightenment of Protestants in the manifold errors of Popery, and the conversion of Roman Catholics and Infidels to the Faith of Christ, by means of public lectures, classes, and conferences. It carries on its operations on purely missionary principles, and employs a trained and permanent agency. An efficient missionary has been obtained in Mr. George Hay, who has already proved himself to be a successful worker in this special sphere of labour. Mr. Hay has undergone a regular course of study in connection with the "Protestant Society for promoting the religious principles of the Reformation, and for special missions to Roman Catholics in Great Britain," and holds a certificate of a most satisfactory kind from the lecturers and secretary of the London society.

The Directors meet in the Religious Institution Rooms, 174 Buchanan street, for business on third Monday of each month.

Subscriptions received by the treasurer, Frank Y. Henderson, Esq., accountant, 175 Buchanan street; or by Mr. George Hay, 7 Alexander street.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97 (amended by 34 Vict. c. 4, and 34 and 35 Vict. c. 103), with the Duty on Policies of Sea Insurance, Letters Patent, Patent Medicine, and Plate, and Inventory, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under the former Acts. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule. New matter is put within brackets. When the sections are merely cited without the Act, they are the sections of 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97. All items in the schedule of the Act relating solely to England and Ireland are excluded. In the same session were passed the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. c. 98, Stamp Duties Management, and 33 and 34 Vict. c. 99, repealing certain enactments relating to the Stamp Duties.

The Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97, came into operation on 1st January, 1871, and by § 3 the exemptions in other Acts in force are preserved.

The attention of the public may be directed to the following matters:—

2. Progressive duty on words is not imposed.
3. Provisions are made for charging ad valorem duty on conveyances in respect of periodical payments or annuities.—(§ 72.)

6. A notarial instrument is liable to the same duty as an instrument of seisin—to wit, 5s.
7. Any instrument specifically charged by any previous Act with the duty of 35s., is chargeable with the duty of 10s.—(§ 4.)
8. Instruments relating to the property of the crown, and to the private property of the sovereign, are liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision is made to the contrary.—(§ 5.)
9. Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of material.—§ 7 (1.) Every instrument on the same piece of material is to be separately stamped.—§ 7 (2.)
10. Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 8 (1.) An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 8 (2.)
11. An appropriate stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 9 (1.) An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 9 (2.)

12. All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, penalty on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—(§ 10.)

INVENTORY DUTY.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—

All personal property (heritable securities are personal property) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and personal bonds excluding executors.—(48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, &c.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, 13, &c.; and 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8.)

Personal Property—Absolute power of disposal.—

Personal estate which a person, dying after 3rd April, 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty.—(23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lien thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lien thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death.—(25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country, if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country.—See Attorney-General v. Bonwens, 4 Meeson & Welsby, 171.

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executry. In addition, from and after 1st August, 1870, the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house-rents would not therefore be to the half-year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

MODES IN WHICH DUTY MAY BE PAID.—When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Commissary Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made movable by the Act 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the heritable securities excluding executors and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the United Kingdom.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

RETURN OF INVENTORY DUTY

The inventory duty and probate and administration duty are paid on the whole personal property, without deduction of debts; but the Act 5 and 6 Vict. c. 79, § 23, provides for a return being given on proof of the constitution and payment of the debts. This return must be claimed within three years; but the time will be prolonged on application to the Board of Inland Revenue. No return to be granted in respect of a voluntary debt due from a person dying after 28th June, 1861, expressed to be payable on death of such person, or payable under an instrument which shall not have been bona fide delivered to the donee three months before the death of such person. (24 and 25 Vict. c. 92, § 3.)

Note.—Forms of inventory and additional inventory will be found in the Juridical Styles, vol. iii., App. 8-11. Forms of inventories, and also regulations for return of inventory duty, may be obtained at the Office of the Solicitor, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh. Claims are to be lodged in the Solicitor's Office, Room No. 9, and Monday and Friday between 12 and 2 o'clock are the days for receiving claims from the claimants or their agents.

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any estate which he has power to dispose of, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy: And also for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate, directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument.

Affidavit not to be used otherwise. Person paying full duty relieved of penalty, &c., for omission to state truly in instrument.—(2.) Provided that no affidavit or statutory declaration made in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person making the same in any proceeding whatever, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and every person by whom any such affidavit or declaration is made shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty, forfeiture, or disability he may have incurred by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

GENERAL STATISTICS OF GLASGOW.

THE CITY OF GLASGOW.

The City Chamberlain estimated the population of the City and Suburbs, at Midsummer of 1877, as follows:—Total population situated within the parliamentary boundary, 538,000; outside of the parliamentary city, but now forming part of the municipal city, 18,000; so that the municipal city of Glasgow contained at midsummer of 1877 a population of 556,000. The municipal city may be estimated to have contained in the middle of 1878 a population of 567,000.

We may therefore regard the population of the city and its adjuncts as standing thus:—Municipal city, middle of 1877, estimated population, as previously stated, 556,000; suburban districts, at same date, north side of river—Partick and Hillhead, 36,610; Maryhill and Milngavie, 20,060; Shettleston and Tolleross, 7750; total, 64,420. South side of river—Govan, 42,565; Pollokshields, Kinning Park, and Paisley road, 21,555; Crosshill, Langside, and Cathcart, 18,240; Shawlands, Pollokshaws, and Thornliebank, 13,525; total, 95,885. Thus the City of Glasgow, including its connected and closely contiguous suburban districts, represented, in the middle of 1877, a united population of as nearly as may be, 716,305.
